¹¹ Since, then, we know what it is to fear the Lord, we try to persuade others. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience. ¹² We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again but are giving you an opportunity to take pride in us, so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather than in what is in the heart.

¹³ If we are 'out of our mind,' as some say, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. ¹⁵ And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

FRONTLINE

'Being in a world where, almost no one, the vast majority of people were not Christian believers and the challenge of what being a Christian meant in that world was hugely important and taught me to value the (fact that everyone has a vocation) everyone is called to be a Christian disciple wherever they are, it is not just for people who get ordained'

'Holy means set apart. Not like a set of cutlery that only comes out on Sundays. More like a Swiss Army knife - remove a splinter, cut a rope, open a bottle, anytime anywhere. Whatever the Boss needs.'
